About Markian + Vieira

Markian

A joint venture between two families, Markian has relationships at its core. The name itself embodying the founders' fathers, Mark and Ian.

Andrew and Justin Barrett lead the Barrett Group, an interior fit-out and bespoke joinery manufacturer. Roz De Waal and Christopher McKenzie, founders of design agency, Unlmted are unexpected, original and inspired. Together they have created interiors, furniture and products that push the boundaries of creativity and technology.

The team embody what it means to be Markian. Bold. Unexpected. Remarkable.

Vieira

VIEIRA (noun) scallop in Spanish - A shape that has inspired artists, designers and architects from the beginning of time, the effortless symmetry and perfection of nature, captured in the tiniest of things – a shell. Vieira delivers an intricate, beautiful and versatile range of bespoke furniture, interior objects, handmade rugs and fine art.

The inaugural range from Markian is about the invisible threads and strands that connect us across time and space.
